HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION honoring Steve Main.

Whereas, Steve Main, who has been the voice for Habitat for Humanity in the Martinsville community for the past 15 years, is stepping down as executive director of the Morgan County Habitat for Humanity;

Whereas, During Steve Main's tenure, the Morgan County Habitat for Humanity has grown to 15 members and accomplished many things;

Whereas, Nineteen Habitat houses have been built, the first Habitat subdivision in the county has been completed, property in Paragon has been secured for future building projects, more than $750,000 in grant fund money has been obtained, and a Habitat Home Store has been established to recycle used home products and furniture;

Whereas, In addition to the visible accomplishments Steve Main has helped bring about during his time with the Morgan County Habitat for Humanity, he is particularly proud of the cooperative relationships that have been developed with the other housing related agencies in the county;

Whereas, Steve Main firmly believes that, in addition to providing needy families with a place to live, Habitat for Humanity must also assist the families with home and money management;

Whereas, For this reason, Steve Main is a staunch supporter of the BRIDGE Education Program, which provides classes to teach families how to budget money, maintain a home and yard, and manage checking and savings accounts;

Whereas, Before coming to Habitat for Humanity, Steve Main was an orchestra and music teacher in Martinsville from 1971 to 1986 and at Carmel-Clay Schools from 1986 to 1998;

Whereas, Steve Main will continue to dedicate his time to people in need, but he would like to dedicate more of his time to church missions;

Whereas, Steve Main and his wife JoAnn attend the First Presbyterian Church in Bloomington and plan to become active in a senior citizens' home repair program the church is starting; and

Whereas, Steve Main's philosophy in life can be summed up by a sign he keeps on his desk stating: "It's amazing how much can be accomplished when nobody cares who gets the credit"; however, Steve Main deserves much of the credit for the accomplishments of the Morgan County Habitat for Humanity: Therefore,

*Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana,
the Senate concurring:*

1 SECTION 1. That the members of the Indiana General Assembly
2 express their gratitude to Steve Main for his many hours of dedicated
3 service to the Martinsville community and Morgan County residents
4 and wish him continuing success in his future endeavors.

5 SECTION 2. That the Principal Clerk of the House of 6 Representatives shall transmit a copy of this resolution to Steve Main 7 and his family.
